Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Windsor and daughter, Coye Ann, of 5381 Auth Road, recently spent a most delightful time at Ocean City, during which they visited Frontier Town, the TV Western come to life. We wish to join their other friends and neighbors in wishing them a very happy 20th wedding anniversary, August 24.

Mrs. F. R. Hayden and your reporter spent the past week-end as the guests of Miss Leone Pursel of Albin, two miles south of Winchester, Va. We elected to go via Rte. 7 in preference to the wider No. 50, since we enjoy the quieter, more rustic roads. The many recent rains have washed away all the dust from the foliage, and the country is breathtakingly beautiful. One sight I shall not soon forget was an orchard a little beyond Seven Corners, where the trees are drooping under the weight of very large purple plums. Never have I wished more sincerely that I were a talented painter.

Last week old friends and neighbors enjoyed a very hasty visit from the family of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Guttenberg, formerly of 7221 Brinkley Road, but now of Orangevale, Calif. Everyone commented on how the children, particularly Larry and Annie, have grown and developed.

Your reporter made an unfortunate mistake in last week's column, when announcing another registration for the pre-school kindergarten on August 26. That registration is for the regular elementary school.

The kindergarten has its list of 50 already filled, with a long waiting list of youngsters all ready and eager to step in if any of the lucky ones drop out. Mrs. Florence Stine, director of the kindergarten, would be delighted if she could take in more pupils but she is very much pleased with the response she has received.

The mothers of the 5-year-olds are also very happy to have such a school available. Mrs. Stine has seven years of successful kindergarten teaching under the supervision of the Board of Education, and has declined to teach in a school which she felt did not meet her standards.

M/Sgt. William E. Beaty of 5408 Middleton Lane arrived home Monday night after driving for 20 hours from Pulaski, Kentucky, where he had been visiting his relatives. He enjoyed the event which caused him to delay starting his trip home so long he had to make it strenuous, but he admitted he was tired to the point of exhaustion when he finally reached his own house.

Mrs. S. T. Wyant of 5901 John Adams Drive accompanied her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pence of Anacostia, to spend the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Richard R. Renalds, of Timberville, Va.

Reunion

The occasion was a reunion of the two families, that of the Renalds and the Pencens. Her son, Daniel, who is serving his summer "hitch" with the Air Force at Craig AFB, near Selma, Alabama, is expected home this week-end.

Mrs. Joseph Farrell of 7267 Brinkley Road was recently in the hospital for minor surgery, but she is home again and beginning to feel fine again.

On August 18, at her home at 5485 Glen Hill Road, Carol Reinhart entertained her majorette class with a picnic luncheon. These girls are the ones she taught at Camp Springs School through the summer. Everyone enjoyed a delightful lunch.

On August 20, at the Marlboro Fair, the Forestville Majorettes of which Paula Meck, Joyce Williams, and Susan Holler all Camp Springs girls, are members, took a second place trophy in the parade held at the Fair Grounds. The girls also took a second place trophy at Gwyn Oaks Park in Baltimore on August 21 at the large parade held there.

The Harry Taltavull family is back home at 5420 Middleton Lane after a sightseeing tour of Virginia Beach, North and South Carolina, with a family reunion of Mrs. Taltavull's mother and five sisters and their families. They returned through Shenandoah Valley and Natural Bridge.

Mr. Norris Friel of 5317 Branch Avenue is home on a vacation for a few days. Unfortunately his work keeps him much of the time in Daytona Beach, Florida, making it necessary for his wife to meet him there or at some convenient in-between place; so this opportunity to come to his own home was quite a treat.

Mrs. Harvey Bohannon of 5415 Middleton Lane and her family are entertaining her brother, Mr. William Lohr and his family from Albany, N. Y. Her niece, Miss Mary Cartese from Culpeper, Va., will be spending the week-end with them.

Mrs. Bernard Coyle, Jr., of 5417 Middleton Lane, is enjoying a two weeks' visit from her mother, Mrs. Nora Lohr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Settlemyer and family are home again from a visit to Mrs. Settlemyer's mother and other relatives in Lakewood, Ohio, and her sister in Muskegon, Michigan.

The Rev. Ralph W. Wott, pastor of Bell's Methodist Church, and his wife arrived home from a six-weeks' visit to Europe and the Holy Land last Thursday evening. They flew to Idlewild, N. Y., and came the rest of the way by train. The Church secretary, Mrs. Dorothy (Darrell) Bush, is also home from Ft. Knox, Ky., where she has been visiting her brother, Bobby Biggs, who is doing his hitch in the U. S. Army.

Young Sam Isenberg of 5620 Allentown Road is home and much improved. He is enjoying his room which has been scientifically prepared for him by the National Polio Foundation. As the use of his respirator and other equipment is dependent on the constancy of the electric current, they have installed a generator for his use in case of an unexpected power failure. He enjoys being read to, and the receipt of cards and other mail is an event in his daily living. Do not forget to write him often.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fairall and family are home from a delightful trip during which they visited the Ford plant in Detroit, and then went to Niagara Falls by way of Canada.

Mr. Charles W. Mullikin of 5701 Allentown Road is currently on the sick list. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Last Wednesday the Surattsville High School Band picked up their uniforms and some music. On Saturday the band will march in the Firemen's parade at Clinton.

The school registration for the Camp Springs Elementary School will be held this Friday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The new Camp Springs PTA president is Mrs. William M. Penn—a newcomer—who is now living in the Westchester Estates. She has a 6th grade boy and a 11th grade daughter. Mrs. Penn has had a course in journalism.

Dr. Edward F. Dobi hall, chairman of the PTA's Foreign Language Committee, reports a meeting of this committee at his home on Nottingham Drive, Westchester Estates, to map plans for the classes in French, Spanish and German. This group is doing a very fine service to our community, and everything possible should be done to uphold its hands.

Miss Martha Jane McDaniels was hostess the other day to a group of young people from Camp Springs and Clinton at a splash party at the pool at Andrews Air Force Base. It was great fun.
