

JOHN HREZO, principal of Crossland High School, was cited by the southern Prince George's Board of Trade for outstanding contribution to the community in the field of education. Hrezo has been Crossland's principal since the school opened in 1963. Ed Freeman, left, president of the Board of Trade, presented the award to Hrezo, right. Tommy Gwynn, assistant superintendent of education, represented Carl D. Hassell, superintendent.

(Staff Photo)