Mrs. Mary Fairall is visiting friends in Charleston, South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Fender and daughter, Lona, of Bacova, Virginia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Arnold on Friday. They also visited other friends while here. On their way back home they stopped to see the Rev. and Mrs. Mulholland. The Rev. Mulholland was a former pastor of the Bethel Free Methodist Church in Allentown.

The Fenders received word that their new son-in-law, Mr. Carpenter, husband of Judy, was in the hospital. We hope his condition was not serious.

Friends of Mr. John W. Goodwin were saddened to hear of his death on July 6 at George Washington Hospital.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, two step-sons, his mother, Mrs. Minnie L. Goodwin, six sisters and three brothers.

His remains were at the Ives Funeral Home in Arlington, Virginia until July 11, where services were held at 10 a.m.

Interment was in Arlington National Cemetery. Sympathy is extended to his family and relatives from the entire community.

Miss Nancy Sellner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sellner, spent last week at the University of Maryland's 4-H Club week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lamb and daughter, Barbara, of Falls Church, Virginia, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Arnold last week. They were former residents of our community. Mr. Arnold suffered an injury to his hand on July 4 and had to be taken to Hadley Hospital to have a sliver of wood removed from it, necessitating several stitches to close the wound. He is home and his hand is much better now.

The float representing the Southeast Hospital will be at Oxon Hill across from Seitz's store on July 18. On the 19th it will be at Perrygo's store in Broadcreek. On July 20 and 21 it will be at Shuler's in Clinton. Stop and visit the float at any of these places and all information will be given to you in regards to the hospital plans.

Back From Los Angeles

Mrs. Nancy Bailey and Miss Goldie Scott returned from Los Angeles on Thursday morning. They report having learned much at the National Educational meeting held there.

On Friday evening at the close of the sessions they visited relatives in Monterey Park. They were taken to many places of interest in California and through the desert to Mexico. On July 8, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and family took Miss Scott to her home in West Virginia, where they picked up their son, Donald, and visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Barnes and family of Glade Drive have returned to their home after visiting relatives in Allentown, Pa.

Mrs. Trenton Webb, Jr., and daughter, "Chubby", of Bock Road, are visiting relatives in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. William Neal of Tucker Road have returned from North Carolina where they attended a reunion.

Master Steve Gibbs of the District spent last week with his cousin, Bernie Hamilton. They, with Aubrey Cain and Keith Hamilton, camped out at night.

Mrs. Barbara Hanbury was surprised with a birthday party at her home on Saturday evening.

Deceased

Mrs. Rose Cross, mother of Mr. S. Stewart Cross of Wheeler Road passed away at George Washington Hospital on Monday morning. Funeral arrangements are not complete at this time.

Mrs. Amalie Salvetti entertained with a ravioli dinner at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Donald Mills. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Philip McCray, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Hughes.

The Tom Palmer family have returned from a vacation in North Carolina and the Lloyd Madden family from New York.

Mrs. James Day and son, Jimmie, are visiting relatives in the State of Kansas.

Everyone in the area is saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Florence Mae Gardner who passed away on July 9 at Casualty Hospital. She is survived by her husband, Murle, three sons and a daughter, besides her mother.

Florence was a member of the Bethel Class of Bell's Church and taught Sunday School there as well as being active in all Church activities. She was a Den Mother for the Cub Scouts, an active member of the PTA, secretary of the Tayac Recreation Council, past president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Allentown Road Volunteer Fire Department and leader of the children's division of the WCTU.

The Prince George's County Ladies Auxiliary to the Fire Departments held Memorial Services on Monday evening at Simmons Bros. Funeral Home at 7 p.m.

Funeral services were held at
