

JANUARY 3, 1968

THE STAR LEADER, CLINTON, MARYLAND

Year 1967 in Pictorial Review

NEW GOVERNOR: Spiro T. Agnew sworn in at Annapolis.

CROSSLAND DEDICATION; President Lyndon B. Johnson inspects part of the vocational equipment at Crossland during dedication program he attended.

FIRST CULTURAL FESTIVAL; Bells Methodist Church held their first Annual Cultural Festival.

CROSSLAND WINS AGAIN: Crossland High School's football team (shown in dark jerseys) again captured the area football crown.

CLINTON REGIONAL PARK OPENS; Part of one of the many crowds drawn to the area's newest recreation facility.

SANTA COMES TO TOWN; Most popular visitor of the year was the man in the red suit and a Ho, Ho Ho. He is shown above with one of his young admirers.

P.G. DELEGATION TO ANNAPOLIS: The Prince Georges County Delegation is sworn in at Annapolis.

NAVY JET CRASHES; Navy jet fighter crashed while attempting to land at Andrews, destroying a Forestville home.

INFANT DEATH IN TRAILER FIRE; In the above trailer an infant met death when the trailer caught fire.

SO. MARYLAND HOSPITAL REMAINS OPEN: Following attempts to close it-the So. Maryland Medical Center was allowed to remain open, under the direction of Dr. Robert Merkle. The Members of the Council of Organizations of the Greater Clinton area.

CITIZENS PETITION FOR ROUTE 5 DUALIZATION: Mr. E. Wheeler presents petition to State Senator Hoyer signed by over 3000 citizens and stressing the danger of Route 5.

AIRFLIGHT PIONEER DIES AT ANDREWS: General Benjamin D. Foulois, the nation's last living aviation pioneer, died after 37 years of military service.

AMERICA'S 200,000,000th CITIZEN: Census bureau officials named a Forestville infant as America's 200,000,000th citizen.